

Supreme Court of Victoria

Practice Note No. 5 of 1987

Oral examinations before the Court

The Chief Justice has authorized the issue of the following Practice Note:

In any case where an applicant obtains an order for the oral examination of any person, whether the examination is to take place before a Judge or before a Master or before an officer of the Court, the applicant will be required to arrange for a transcript to be taken of the proceedings at the applicant's expense.

Arrangements for the provision of transcripts can be made with authorized private contractors through the Victorian Government Reporting Service.

Dated this 10th day of December 1987.
